ALVIN K. HELLERSTEIN, U.S.D.J.:

Two hearings have been scheduled for July 15, 2009: a status conference in the 7 World Trade Center litigation, and an oral argument on the three motions for judgment dismissing the claims of all subrogated insurers in the 21 MC 101 docket and in 04 Civ. 7272.

By letter dated June 29, 2009, the parties to the 7 World Trade Center actions seek to extend the fact discovery deadline from June 30, 2009 to August 31, 2009. By July 22, 2009, the parties shall submit letters (1) showing cause for any additional depositions that either party wishes to take; and (2) stating if such additional discovery would present new information relevant to the sub judice issues in 02 Civ. 7188, as described in my order of May 21, 2009.

The status conference scheduled for July 15, 2009 is hereby cancelled. The conference will be rescheduled when, in light of the parties' submissions, I rule as to whether to allow additional discovery.

The oral argument on the three motions concerning subrogation rights will occur as scheduled on July 15, 2009, at 2:30 p.m.

SO ORDERED.

Dated: July 7, 2009
